CONSTITUTION.

Article I.

The name of this organization shall be "The Citizens' Law and Order League of Massachusetts."

Article II.

The object of this League shall be to secure, by all proper means, the enforcement of the restrictive features of existing laws for the regulation of the liquor traffic.

Article III.

Membership in this League shall be limited to one hundred and fifty citizens of the Commonwealth. Vacancies in membership shall be filled by the Executive Committee.

Article IV.

The officers of this League shall be a President, a first and a second Vice-President, a Treasurer, and a Secretary, who shall also be General Manager, all of whom shall be elected at the regular annual meeting of the League, and shall hold their offices for one year from the time of their election; and until their successors are chosen.

Article V.

There shall also be an Executive Committee, which shall consist of the President, the Treasurer, and the Secretary who are declared to be ex officiis members and officers of said Committee, and four other members of the League, who shall also be chosen at the annual meeting.

Article VI.

It shall be the duty of the Executive Committee: —

First: To provide for the raising of funds to defray all necessary and legitimate expenses of this League.

Second: To provide a suitable office for the League, and a place of meeting for the League and for the Executive Committee.

Third: To fill all vacancies among officers or members which may occur by death, resignation or otherwise.

Fourth: To appoint such standing and select Committees as may from time to time be found necessary.

Fifth: And generally to employ such means, agencies and agents as may be deemed best to promote the interests of this League and to advance the objects for which it is organized. The Executive Committee is authorized to adopt such Rules as it shall deem necessary for its own government.

Article VII.

General meetings of the League shall be held at such times and places as the Executive Committee may designate. There shall be an annual meeting on the first Wednesday in May of each year for the election of officers and the transaction of such other business as may be thought advisable.

Article VIII.

This Constitution may be altered or amended at any regular meeting of the League by a two-thirds vote of the members present, seven days' notice having been given of the meeting and the proposed amendment.

Provided, however, that at said meeting there shall be at least thirty members present and voting.
